Harvest Is Progressing Fine in Randall--62 Bushels Is Record

Wheat harvest in Randall county will be about 65% complete by the end of this week, stated O. H. Williams of the Texas Employment Commission.

Wheat has made from 13 bushels to 62 bushels per acre, and the county average will go well above 20 bushels to the acre.

There are plenty of machines and labor to take care of the harvest needs.

This just about sums up the harvest situation so far as Randall county is concerned. Harvest weather, good old hot weather, with plenty of burning sunshine followed the heavy rains of two weeks ago. Some of the late wheat has been injured by the hot sun, and the grain has shriveled to a considerable extent.

However a check at the local elevators indicate that a majority of the wheat is just about up to normal, with a test of 60.

O. H. Williams will close his office here Thursday with the Texas Employment Commission to return to the main office in Amarillo. He will be available for immediate service to the farmers if they need additional help. He had no unfilled orders for either men or machines Wednesday morning, and few demands had been made.

George Schaeffer seems to have established the highest record for Randall county production. He made 62 bushels to the acre on 17 acres of sod land which was planted to wheat for the first time.

R. B. Elliott is reported to have 200 acres of summer tilled land which made 60 bushels to the acre.

Joe Frank states that he had 45 acres of summer tilled land which made 51 bushels to the acre. His entire crop of 1100 acres averages better than 23 bushels.

The News requests other farmers to report their average yields of wheat by the end of harvest.

Canyon To Be Sprayed For Bugs Saturday

Canyon will be sprayed with DDT on next Saturday, July 2.

City Health Officer, Dr. Robert P. Jarrett, states that he has made arrangements with the fogging machine from Amarillo to spend the entire day here Saturday, making all alleys in town with the hope of destroying the great flock of bugs and insects which have accumulated since the heavy rains.

"The formula used this year is said to be much better than that used last year," stated Dr. Jarrett. Canyon was sprayed twice last summer, but there was little improved conditions in the city. Flies seemed to thrive on the spray used last year.

Between now and Saturday, every resident of Canyon is urged to get the weeds cut on their premises and the alleys so that the spray will be able to do the most good. There has never been a time in Canyon when there were so many mosquitoes as are present at the present time. Citizens of Canyon are covered with bites and welts as the result of the heavy crop of insects.

Changes in City Government Is Request C. of C.

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce in monthly meeting Thursday night discussed local conditions which they hope to see improved in the near future.

The first immediate need was a move to eliminate breeding places for flies. The city is progressing as rapidly as possible with its weed cutting program, but there are still places in Canyon which have not been touched. Citizens are urged to get busy and cut the weeds before polio strikes. Spraying the town has been discussed as a method of killing out the surplus fly population and the large number of mosquitoes which have resulted from stagnant water. Citizens can help by seeing to it that no stagnet water is allowed to stand in empty cans and buckets on their premises.

Several towns in Texas have passed, and are enforcing anti-peddling ordinances. Model ordinances are in the hands of the city commission and these are being studied. It is urged that steps be taken at once to put a stop to transient peddlers who are invading this territory. There have been many crews of peddlers working in Canyon during the past few months, and this number will be greatly increased after the wheat crop is harvested and sold. These fellows will be after the money which should go into local channels of trade.

A third local need is for better police protection before Canyon citizens have a heavy loss. Canyon has only one man on the police and fire protection force. He must punch his clock eight times during the night hours in the business district in order to maintain a good fire insurance record. Little protection is given to other parts of the city because of this heavy assignment for fire protection. Canyon has been fortunate in having such a low burglary loss in the past.

Earl Craig Will Teach Bible at West Texas State

Mr. Earl L. Craig, his wife and two sons, E. L. and Johnny, will move to Canyon the first of September. They will occupy an apartment in the house purchased by the Church of Christ from Joe Thompson at 402 24th Street, next door to the College Health Center. This building will soon be remodeled to make a classroom for Bible teaching and the apartment in which the Craig family will live. Mr. Craig will be the instructor in the Church of Christ Bible Chair.

Mr. Craig received his B. A. degree from Abilene Christian College, Abilene, in 1931. While minister of the Church of Christ in Canyon he received the M. A. degree from West Texas State College in 1940. His major at Abilene was Bible; at West Texas State it was Education. He is an ideal man for this type of work, to which he will devote full time, being known and respected in Canyon and throughout the Panhandle.

The courses of study which will be offered by Mr. Craig when the Fall term begins at West Texas State will carry full college credit. They will appear in the new catalogue and on the schedule for the Fall term. "We urge students to include Bible in their studies," says Joe F. Watson, minister of the local Church of Christ.

Air Age Lecture Will Be Held at West Texas State

Second speaker to come to West Texas State College and lecture to the new Air-age Education class will be Dr. H. E. Mehrens, chief of the aviation education division of the CAA in Washington, D. C.

He will be here on June 30 as a part of the aid which the CAA is giving to colleges which offer the course. The University of Texas is the only other college in Texas offering it. Taught, by J. W. (Ted) Reid, it is designed to give the teacher an adequate background in aviation.

Dr Mehrens was head of the English department at Eastern New Mexico College, Portales from 1934 to 1941. He has been an educationist with the CAA since that time. In 1947 he was a lecturer at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga. and in 1946 lectured to major universities over the nation.

The lecture will be at 7:30 a. m. in the Administration Building Auditorium. Everyone is invited to attend.

$30,000 Added For Museum Building to Appropriation Bill

Senator Grady Hazlewood has succeeded in having written $30,000 for the Panhandle-Plains Museum building and equipment in the free conference appropriations bill now pending in the legislature.

According to word from Austin Senator Hazlewood has been successful in securing $200,000 additional funds for West Texas State College, which includes the $30,000 for the museum. Hazlewood is a member of the Free Conference Committee handling the educational institutions.

The last session of the legislature appropriated $90,000 for the museum, but the comptroller refused to approve the bill because of the estimated lack of funds. The two-year period ended up with a surplus of $100,000,000, which has been spent by this session of the legislature.

An effort is being made to wind up the regular session of the legislature this week. None of the four major appropriation bills have been finally passed by the legislature.

Funeral For Tom Lollar Held at Happy Wednesday

Tom Lollar, 60, died Tuesday at the Neblett Hospital where he had been under treatment for two weeks. Mr. Lollar had been a successful farmer living near Happy for several years.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church in Happy, conducted by Revs. Earl Cartree, Audrey White and Wise. He had been a member of this congregation for 45 years.

Interment was in Dreamland Cemetery, under the direction of the Griggs-Warren Funeral Home.

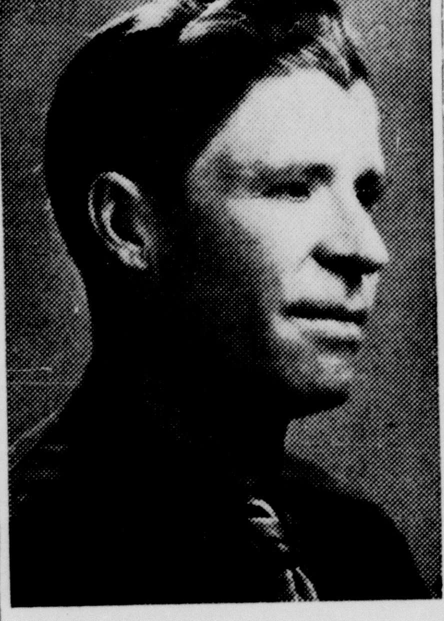
Lonnie L. Byars Is Named Agent For Continental



LONNIE BYARS

Lonnie L. Byars has been appointed Continental Oil Company commission agent at Canyon, according to a recent announcement by S. J. Larson, division manager, Albuquerque.

A native Texan, Byars received his early education at Pleasant Valley School, Floyd County, and later attended Peacock Military Academy, San Antonio. He was engaged in farming prior to his recent appointment with Continental.

Byars is a member of the Lions Club.

Father of Mrs. W. T. Davis Died on Sunday Afternoon

John Franklin Hurst died Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Davis. He was 91 years, 9 months and 6 days of age on the day of his death.

Mr. Hurst fell in 1937 breaking his hip, and in 1939 lost his eyesight.

The funeral was held at Weatherford Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Survivors are Mrs. Davis and one son, Lon E. Hurst of Chincateque, Va. Five grandsons, three granddaughters and six great grand children also survive.

Burial of Carl E. Odom, Sr. Pending Arrival of Relatives

Carl Ervin Odom, Sr., 43, died Tuesday morning following a heart attack at his home in Happy. He was brought to Canyon for treatment, which was to no avail. He was engaged in farming, and was formerly with the Santa Fe.

The body is at the Griggs-Warren Funeral Home pending funeral arrangements.

Survivors are: Mrs. Maude Odom, the wife; three sons, Carl Odom, Jr., Billy K. Odom and Bobby Glenn Odom; two brothers and a sister, all living in Long Beach, Calif., Clyde Odom, Garman Odom and Mrs. Eula Smith.

Randall Stands 26th In the Sale of Saving Bonds

Randall county stands 26th among the 254 counties of Texas in the sale of United States Savings Bonds.

According to a report of the treasury department up to June 18, citizens of Randall county had bought a total of $106, 687.50 of Series E Bonds. With a quota of $85,000, the percentage was 128.54% of the yuota allotted to Randall county.

Seventy counties in Texas had exceeded their quotas. None of these were among the large counties of the State.

Business To Be Suspended For Fourth of July

July Fourth is one of the days agreed upon last fall by the business houses of Canyon for all day closing.

As a result of this agreement, practically all business will be suspended for the day on next Monday.

However, since harvest is in full swing, it is likely that implement houses will be opened in order to serve farmers who are in need of repairs.

Mrs. Mitchell had been in ill health more than a year and had been hospitalized three weeks. She had been a resident of Curry County, New Mexico, since 1913.

Survivors are the husband, Sam W. Mitchell and a daughter, Roberta Gay Mitchell, both of Bellview Community; her parents, Mr. and and Mrs. J. L. Moore; three sisters, Mrs. H. A. Dunning, Newcastle, Okla.; Mrs. J. W. Caton, Eunice, N. M.; and Mrs. Harrison Garrett, Amarillo; and two brothers, Wallace Moore, Gage, N. M.; and Kenneth Moore, Clovis.

Roping Club Looks For Cowgirl For Pampa Rodeo Show

The annual Rodeo and Horse Show will be held in Pampa on August 3-6.

The Pampa organization wants Canyon to send a Cowgirl contestant to the big show.

Ed Weeks of the Canyon Roping Club has charge of arrangements to secure one or more girls to enter the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seymour and son, Gary, of San Fernando, California, are moving back to Canyon after having lived two years in the "Sunny State." Mr. Seymour is the son of Mrs. Reba Seymour.

Special Prizes Will Be Offered For Treasure Hunt in Palo Duro State Park Is Announcement of Week

An average of 1,000 more visitors each week than a year ago are visiting colorful Palo Duro Canyon State Park this summer. The increase in a large measure is attributed to the quest for the goldine coins of the fabulous 1949 Treasure Hunt. Some 10,000 numbered coins were dropped into the Canyon May 28 from a plane. Those ending in seven are good for 1,000 valuable prizes and all others are eligible for costly supplemental and grand prizes. The prize list totals more than $20,000 in value.

Sponsored by the Palo Duro Boosters club with heavy membership in Amarillo, Canyon and Hereford, the prize hunt gets in high for the remainder of the summer. The next supplemental prize will be an eight-day expense paid trip to Havana, Cuba via Braniff International Airways given by the Booster club. It will be awarded to the holder of either the high or low coin in some pre-determined 1,000 series at 4 o'clock on July 4th in Palo Duro State Park. This is the second such trip won in the hunt. The previous winner was Raines Fox of Amarillo.

On July 17 at 4 o'clock a $250 diamond ring will be given by the Mission Jewelry Company. Then the prizes will be awarded in the following order:

One year old, sorrel quarterhorse filly Casey's Billy Red Fox given by Glen L. Casey, Amarillo, on August 7.

A Crosley nine-foot Shelvador Refrigerator given by Domestic Appliance Distributors, Bryce O'Keefe, President, Amarillo, on August 14.

An Estate deluxe Gas Range given by Amarillo Hardware Company on August 21. A registered and bred two-year-old quarterhorse, Casey's Beauty given by Glen L. Casey of Amarillo at 4 o'clock on September 4. This horse is valued at $500.

A 14-day expense paid vacation trip to Rio de Janiero via Braniff to be given by Palo Duro Boosters Club at 4 o'clock Labor Day, September 5.

The final grand prize and perhaps scores of others will be awarded at 4 o'clock September 11. That prize is a Chevrolet Fleetline two-door sedan given by the Plains Chevrolet Co., of Amarillo. All number seven coins will be voided on September 5 and unawarded prizes will be awarded when the grand prize is given.

As a result of the Treasure Hunt the park has received unprecedented publicity this year. Millions heard of it for a week on the Queen for a Day radio program which sent a queen to attend opening festivities. The Bride and Groom couple selected on that radio program in Hollywood on July 5 will spend their honeymoon in Palo Duro Canyon. In addition the Nyes Theatre Corporation will film its technicolor picture "Thunder in the Dust" in Palo Duro Canyon State Park and an adjoining ranch during July. A ten-day shooting sequence in the state park will begin July 10. The picture introduces for the first time under his own name, John Barrymore, Jr., and has in its cast Robert Preston, Cilli Wills and other western stars.

Borger, Dumas, Plainview, Hereford and Tulia are vying for attendance honors at the park when Canyon and Amarillo, closest cities, are eliminated. Prize winners have included visitors from as far away as Missouri and approximately 750 of the prize. seven coins remain to be found.

Dallas Attorney Is Seeking Attorney General of Texas

Will Wilson of Dallas, now district attorney, was here Thursday visiting friends. He says that he will likely be a candidate for the office of Attorney General of Texas, but so far is making no definite announcement.

Because of the size of Texas, Wilson is making a preliminary survey of the field before he definitely announces for the job.

C. R. Burrow Will Observe 50th Year in Lumber Business

On July 15th, C. R. Burrow will observe his 50th anniversary in the lumber business in Canyon.

A special section or The Canyon News will be devoted to Mr. Burrow for the week of July 14. Many friends of Mr. Burrow in Canyon are writing their appreciation of his work in the community for this edition, and business firms are extending congratulations.

Open House will be held at the Burrow Lumber Company during the day of July 15.

There is not another lumber dealer in the Panhandle who has been in the same line of business for 50 years.

ATTENDING MEET

Mrs. Lee Foster is spending the week at Buffalo Gap attending a State Presbyterian Ladies Meeting. Buffalo Gap is the Summer Conference Headquarters for Presbyterian Church people of all Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cline of West Liberty, Iowa, are visiting at the parental C. M. Presley home.

Second Play of Summer Given at West Texas

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" will be the second of a series of five plays presented by the Palo Duro Players at West Texas State College this summer. Two special high school students from White Deer will take the leading roles in the gay comedy written by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough.

It will be presented at 8:15 o'clock, June 29 and 30 in the Education Building Auditorium. The part of Emily Kimbrough will be played by Dorothy Barnett and Roberta Corder will play Cornelia Otis Skinner. Also in the cast will be P. J. Neff, Rose Powell, Harold Mayfield, Odell Wilkes, Sue McMahan, Wayne Rankin, Harold Pool, Maydelle Beavers, A. B. Smith, Inell Brotherton, Virginia Hunter, Marjorie Bain, Carl Michell and Rosie Bates.

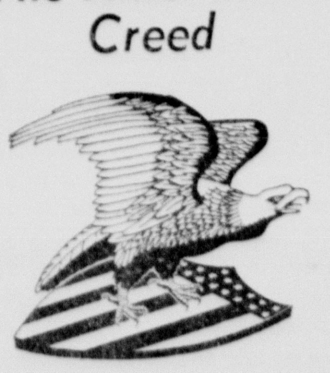
Miss Ellen Sanders Brought Home

Miss Ellen Sanders was returned last Wednesday from Fort Worth where she has been in a hospital as the result of a compound fracture of the pelvic bone.

She is resting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan F. Sanders, but will be confined to her home for five or six weeks.

Both Mrs. Sandars and son, Richard, escaped from the accident near Breckenridge with minor injuries. The Sanders car was hit by a car driven by a man from California, who was arrested for driving on the wrong side of the highway.

The American's Creed



I believe in the United States of America as:
A government of the people,
By the people, for the people;
Whose just powers are derived
From the consent of the governed;
A democracy in a republic;
A sovereign Nation of many sovereign states;
A perfect Union, one and inseparable;
Established upon these principles
Of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity
For which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.
I therefore believe it is my duty
To my country to love it,
To support its Constitution,
To obey its Laws,
To respect its Flag,
And to defend it against all enemies.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Legislature Goes on Spending Spree in Its Early Days

The News does not intend that any reader should assume that we are continually griping about the action of the legislature. Having been down there two regular and seven extra sessions, we believe that we know a few of the handicaps which confront the legislators. We are tempted to wonder what matter of folks this legislature is composed of that it will do some things, which look entirely illogical.

When the regular session met in January there was a surplus of $100,000,000 in the treasury. That is a whale of a lot of money in any language.

What happened?

Every sort of appropriation bill was introduced. Four new educational institutions were proposed and the House voted in favor of all four of them.

Were the needs of existing institutions considered while the legislature was on this spending spree? No, never a thought of these regular functions of government! Yet legislators should have known that our government must be supported, and should have been supported first and adequately.

Appropriations were finally passed for two additional educational institutions, and one additional medical college. This in face of the long declared declaration of Texans that we had too many state supported educational institutions; and the further declaration by members of the board of regents of the University of Texas that facilities at Galveston could be increased to take care of all medical students. This could have been done at half the cost of a new college.

In the meanwhile, the 53 junior colleges scattered throughout Texas were given a pat on the shoulder, and their appropriations DOUBLED BY THIS LEGISLATURE. The apportionment was increased from $100 per student to $200 per student. This virtually makes state supported institutions of the 53 junior colleges.

Wo is being penalized in order that the legislature may increase appropriations for the two new institutions, and double the apportionment for the junior colleges, which are supposed to be supported by local people who voted for these institutions?

Who will pay? None other than the 16 existing educational institutions. The legislature has already discovered that there is not enough money to go around, so the existing institutions must be penalized in order to take care of new institutions.

What else is happening? Governor Jester has been pleading for more buildings for the unfortunate of Texas, the insane and the penal system. The legislature appropriated $4,000,000 to improve the penal system, and no one objects to this. But the insane and other helpless wards of the state will continue to live in fire traps simply because the legislature was on its spending spree while the money was available, and everyone had his rand out.

Now comes the legislature seeking to vote themselves an annual salary of $3,600 per year, plus traveling expenses to and from Austin, whether they work or not.

Frankly, we doubt very much whether the antics of the present legislature will justify this big increase. So long as the people will send boys to the legislature to do the work of men, we doubt the wisdom of increasing the pay, as low as it is under the present salary scale.

No, we are not griping, but we certainly are worried about the situation.

Canyon News Hopes to Improve Publication, But Not Now

The Canyon News is elated in its good showing in the newspaper contests of the Texas Press Association. While we did not win top honors, two second places and a fifth are pretty good, considering the fact that Texas has more than 600 weekly newspapers. Some of them are mighty good publications.

We heard that a Texas publisher recently stated that he knew how to improve his paper by 400%, provided he had the money and the time to make improvements that he knew should be made. We feel the same thing about The Canyon News.

In these days of exceedingly high production costs, weekly newspapers must consider costs before they jump into expensive expansions, or improvements.

Maybe some of these days we shall be able to put into effect some of the ideas which we know would improve your weekly newspaper—we hope.

Clean Up Before Polio Hits

We wish that we knew what to do about these pesky mosquitoes. The situation is bad; very bad. Stagnant water, high weeds, and sundry breeding places are increasing the mosquito population.

Flies are increasing. Canyon's experience with the fogging machine last year was entirely unsatisfactory, and it is unlikely that anyone will suggest that the same machine from Amarillo be used again.

Something must be done to clean up before polio strikes.

We Are Worried About Debts

We have pointed out time and again tha,t we are worried about the increased public debt.

The federal government is more than 254 billion in debt, and is doing nothing to pay off this debt; the state of Texas is running behind in its finances because of poor judgment in spending; local government throughout the state is reported to be in distress.

You can be thankful that Canyon, Randall County and the Canyon Independent School district have not piled up huge debts for future generations to pay off.

Two different wheat raisers have expressed the same opinion during the past week: That wheat is too hazardous a crop, and they would like to get out of its production. From the time wheat is planted until it is harvested and sold, there are so many things that are a constant hazard. Both of these men, big operators, have signified their intention to stay with cattle in the future. But after all, wheat is a fascinating gamble.

On July 15 C. R. Burrow will celebrate his 50th anniversary as a lumberman in Canyon. That is a long time to be engaged in one line of business in one community. During that week we shall try to pay tribute to Mr. Burrow. Many Canyon citizens will assist in our efforts.

The people of Randall county are to be complimented on the splendid support given in the drive for sale of U. S. Savings Bonds. We are over the top, standing 26th in the state.

Rewriting Textbooks To Suit Present Fancy Has Difficulties

One would think that the world had enough to do without attempting to accomplish the impossible but with its mania for conferences and the belief that resolutions can settle problems, the futile effort to reform everything continues underway.

In Germany, recently, at a world conference on comparative education, the illustrious delegates urged the creation of an international commission to eliminate nationalist prejudice and bias from history textbooks. This was done in the belief that this would develop a union of democratic nations.

The suggestion to rewrite and supervise history textbooks came from a German but his proposal received overwhelming support from delegates of all the countries represented. Under the plan, an international committee would screen history books of material found objectionable for peaceful relations among nations.

Let us assume that the international committee performs its task and that all history books are corrected to suit the ideas, prejudices and phobias of the members of the committee. What then? Nothing but that new writers will arise to give the people the "truth" and that the confusion will be worse than ever.

While we are thoroughly in accord with the idea that writers of history should attempt to present their facts fairly, in the interest of truth and elementary justice, we have no idea that the end can be achieved through the censorship of an international committee. It would be much better to leave such ideas as censorship alone. Eventually, the writers of histories will write their tomes in fairness and justice, but there must be a demand from the people who buy history books.

Branding Your Enemies As Commies Is a Dangerous Thing

The trial of eleven Communists in New York, together with the espionage charges against Judith Coplon, in Washington, and the trial of Alger Hiss on charges of perjury, have given the people of the United States, perhaps, the wrong impression in regard to the situation that actually exists.

Without going into the details of the various trials, and especially the Coplon and Hiss proceedings, we think a timely warning to the casual reader is advisable. Certain secret reports have been given considerable publicity, naming individuals as pro-Communists, but the fact is that the production of a document, representing the report of an agent, whose information comes from individuals of doubtful veracity is not enough evidence upon which to condemn individuals.

In Washington, in connection with the Coplon trial, the judge ruled that the Government should introduce its evidence. This was absolutely correct in that the Anglo-Saxon ideal of a trial requires that the accused be confronted with the evidence against him, or her. Nevertheless, it would be a serious mistake to conclude that everything included in a report of an FBI agent, when based upon the information gathered from an unnamed informant, is correct.

The people of a democratic government, with due regard to the rights and the good name of others, should always be concerned with the integrity of an individual's good name. We should especially guard against the idea that everybody, accused of communism is guilty. Bits of pieces of evidence, highlighted the newspapers and on the radio, should not be accepted as conclusive. We owe it to those whose names are mentioned to be careful, even in our individual conclusions, as to the honor of American citizens.

Highways Are Dangerous For Those Who Drink While Driving

Thousands of good people will be killed on the highways of the United States before the year 1949 ends.

There seems to be little public indignation over the slaughter. The average automobile driver, acquainted with the natural hazards of the road, hesitates to incite drastic penalties through the fear that some unavoidable catastrophe will land him in the hoose-gow.

There was a time when high speeds were blamed for most of the accidents, but the years have produced better cars and higher speeds. What would have been criminal carelessness in the twenties is considered reasonably safe in the forties and twenty years from now the dangerous speeds of today may be routine.

There are certain recognized criminal acts in connection with motor vehicles, however, that will continue to be condemned. Driving an automobile under the influence of alcohol is an example. It is dangerous, not only to the driver but to all who use the highway. It should be severely punished and yet, in many instances, convictions are hard to secure and punishment is avoided.

The drunks are public enemies when operating automobiles and should be "persuaded" to let others drive in peace. Just because "nice people" sometimes commit this offense is no reason to encourage the habit. It is a crime and should be promptly punished as a crime. To do this will save some lives in 1949.

One highway accident ought to be enough to teach an individual to drive carefully but sometimes it takes another which leaves nobody to learn the lesson.

While principles must be applied practically in the modern world, the man who is mixed up as to the function of principles in his life is very badly mixed up.

There are persons shouting about the destruction of private enterprise who have made huge fortunes under the very conditions they lament.

The question arises, when, if ever, will the federal government not have the money to spend for the benefit of the "unfortunate?"

The man who admits a foolish act is to be trusted. The "wise guy" who is never wrong is a fool; leave him alone.

Not every person mentioned in some confidential spy report is, or has been guilty of disloyalty to the United States.

Habit is necessary to the functions of man. Acquire good habits and make the rule of nature your ally.

If it wasn't for the advice that we give out, free of charge, it would be hard to write these paragraphs.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 22

proposing an Amendment to Article V, Section 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that the Judge of the District Court shall conduct its proceeding at the county seat of the county in which the case is pending, except as otherwise provided by law; providing for election proclamation and submission to qualified electors of the State.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of The State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 7 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as hereafter to read as follows:

"Sec. 7. The State shall be divided into as many judicial districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. For each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, at a General Election, a Judge, who shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall be licensed to practice law in this State and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a Judge of a Court in this State, or both combined, for four (4) years next preceding his election, who shall have resided in the district in which he was elected for two (2) years next preceding his election, who shall reside in his district during his term of office, who shall hold his office for the period of four (4) years, and shall receive for his services an annual salary to be fixed by the Legislature. The Court shall conduct its proceedings at the county seat of the county in which the case is pending, except as otherwise provided by law. He shall hold the regular terms of his Court at the County Seat of each County in his district at least twice in each year in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall have power by General or Special Laws to make such provisions concerning the terms or sessions of each Court as it may deem necessary.

"The Legislature shall also provide for the holding of District Court when the Judge thereof is absent, or is from any cause disabled or disqualified from presiding.

"The District Judges who may be in office when this Amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on September 24, 1949, at which time all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing that the District Court shall conduct its proceedings at the county seat of the county in which the case is pending except as otherwise provided by law"; and

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing that the District Court shall conduct its proceedings at the county seat of the county in which the case is pending, except as otherwise provided by law."

Each voter shall scratch out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed Amendment. In counties or other subdivisions using voting machines, the above provision for voting for and against this Constitutional Amendment shall be placed on such machine in such a manner that each voter shall vote on such machine for or against the Constitutional Amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 32

proposing an Amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding thereto another Section following Section 15, providing that the Legislature may provide for trials in lunacy cases without a jury; further providing for the submission of this Amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of The State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article I of the Constitution of the State of Texas be and the same is hereby amended by adding another Section thereto following Section 15, to be designated Section 15-a, to read as follows:

"Section 15-a. The Legislature shall have the authority to enact all laws necessary to provide for the trial, adjudication of insanity and committment of persons of unsound mind and to provide for a method of appeal from judgments rendered in such cases. Such laws may provide for waiver of trial by jury in cases where the person under inquiry has not been charged with the commission of a criminal offense, and shall provide for a method of service of notice of such trial upon the person under inquiry and of his right to demand a trial by jury."

Sec. 2. That the foregoing Constitutional Amendment be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in September, A. D. 1949, at which election all ballots shall be printed thereon:

"FOR the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that the Legislature may provide for trials without a jury in lunacy cases" and

"AGAINST the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that the Legislature may provide for trials without a jury in lunacy cases." Each voter shall scratch out one (1) of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one (1) expressing his vote on the proposed Amendment. In counties or other subdivisions using voting machines, the above provision for voting for and against this Constitutional Amendment shall be placed on said machine in such a manner that each voter shall vote on such machine for or against the Constitutional Amendment.

Sec. 3. That the Governor of the State of Texas issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 36

proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature of the State of Texas to provide for the establishment and creation of hospital districts; providing for the Governor's proclamation and submission to the electorate.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of The State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be and the same is hereby amended by adding to said Article a new Section to be designated as Section 60, reading as follows:

"Section 60. The Legislature shall have the authority to provide by law for the establishment and creation of hospital districts in the counties of this State under such conditions as the Legislature may fix by law, and to provide for the support of said districts by a tax on the ad valorem properties situated in said counties; providing, however, that before any such district shall be created it shall be approved by a vote of the people in said district."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electorate of the State at an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in September, 1949, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon (or in counties using voting machines the said machines shall provide for) the following:

"FOR The Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for the establishment and creation of hospital districts"; and

"AGAINST The Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for the establishment and creation of hospital districts."

Each voter shall mark out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed Amendment, and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majrity of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Section 3. The governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 38

proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of Texas by adding to Article XVI thereof a new Section to be Numbered 63 and authorizing the Legislature to provide for a statewide system of retirement and disability pensions for appointive officers and employees of the several counties of this State; providing that participation therein by counties shall be voluntary, and authorized by the qualified voters of such county, and providing that administration of said system may be committed to the same body set up to administer the statewide municipal retirement system authorized under Section 51f of Article III.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of The State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section, to be numbered Section 63, which shall read as follows:

"Section 63. The Legislature shall have the authority to provide for a statewide system of retirement and disability pensions for appointive officers and employees of the counties of this State under such a plan and program as the Legislature shall authorize; provided, that participation therein by counties shall be voluntary, and first be authorized by vote of the qualified voters of such county. Administration of such system may be committed to the same body as may be set up to administer the municipal retirement system provided for by Section 51f of Article III."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors for members of the Legislature at an election to be held throughout this State on the fourth Saturday in September, 1949; and at said election the ballots shall have printed thereon the words "FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing a statewide system for retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officials and employees," and "AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing a statewide system for retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officials and employees." Each voter shall strike out one of said clauses on his ballot, leaving the one unmarked which expresses his vote upon the proposed amendment.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the foregoing proposed amendment published as required by the Constitution for proposed amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. If at said election, a majority of the votes cast are "FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing a statewide system for retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officials and employees," the foregoing proposed amendment shall become Section 63 of Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, and proclamation shall be made by the Governor thereof.

Sec. 5. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such proclamation, notice and election.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5

proposing an Amendment to Section 5 of Article II of the Constitution relating to sessions of the Legislature and what may be considered thereat and an Amendment to Section 24 of Article III relating to compensation of Members of the Legislature; specifying the time when the Amendment shall take effect if ratified; and providing for the submission of the proposed Amendment to a vote of the people.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of The State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 24 of Article III of the State Constitution be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 24. Members of the State Senate and House of Representatives shall receive from the State Treasury an annual salary of Three Thousand Six Hundred Dollars ($3,600), to be paid in monthly installments on the first of each month.

"They shall be entitled to mileage in going to the seat of government for each session of the Legislature and returning therefrom, which mileage shall not exceed Two Dollars and Fifty cents ($2.50), for every twenty-five (25) miles, the distance to be computed by the nearest and most direct route of travel from a table of distances to each county seat prepared by the State Comptroller."

Sec. 2. That Section 5 of Article III of the Constitution be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. Two (2) regular sessions of each Legislature shall be held; and until otherwise provided by law, the time of the convening of the first regular session shall be at noon on the second Tuesday in January of each odd-numbered year, and of the second regular session, at noon on the second Tuesday in January of each even-numbered year.

"At other times, when called by the Governor, the Legislature shall convene in special session.

"Appropriations for monthly recurring expenses and salaries paid by the State shall be made for a period of not more than twelve (12) months.

"At the second regular session of each Legislature, only proposals to amend the Constitution and to make appropriations to pay monthly recurring expenses and salaries and such other measures only as four-fifths (4/5) of the Membership of each House may determine shall be considered."

Sec. 3. The Amendments proposed herein, if ratified by the people, shall become effective January first, A. D. 1950.

Sec. 4. The foregoing Constitutional Amendments shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of this State at a General Election to be held throughout this State on the fourth Saturday in September, 1949, same being September 24, 1949, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendments relative to sessions of the Legislature and to compensation of its members."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendments relative to sessions of the Legislature and to compensation of its members."

Each voter shall express his vote on the proposed Amendment in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 5. The Governor of this State shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of The State of Texas:

Section 1. Section 2, Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be and the same is amended hereby so as to read hereafter as follows:

"Section 2. Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years, and who shall be a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in this State one (1) year next preceding an election and the last six (6) months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; provided that before offering to vote at any election a voter shall have registered as an elector before the first day of February next preceding such election. This provision shall be self-enacting. The Legislature shall pass a general registration law requiring registration of voters at a time not later than the first day of February for each election to be held for that calendar year, and the Legislature shall have power to prescribe a registration fee. The Legislature may authorize absentee voting."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electorate of the State at an election to be held on the 24th day of September, 1949, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon (or in counties using voting machines the said machines shall provide for) the following:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas eliminating the provisions in said Constitution making the payment of poll tax a requirement for voting, and providing for a general registration law."

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas eliminating the provisions in said Constitution making the payment of poll tax a requirement for voting, and providing for a general registration law."

Each voter shall mark out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment; and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of said State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Dallas News Wants Advertisement For Educational Issue

The Dallas News is seeking funds to place an advertisement for West Texas State College in its educational edition in July. Last year a public utility paid the expense of such an advertisement.

The Chamber of Commerce has contacted the firm this week hoping to secure support for such an advertisement.

Directors of the Canyon Chamber felt that it was better to spend advertising money in Panhandle papers than to send it out of the territory from which students usually come to the college.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Hill and daughter of Spearman and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Phillips and son of Edmonson were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis and daughter Sunday. Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Davis are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Walker have returned from a two weeks' trip into Missouri and Kentucky where they visited relatives and friends. Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. Florence Fulton, returned with them to spend the summer in their home.

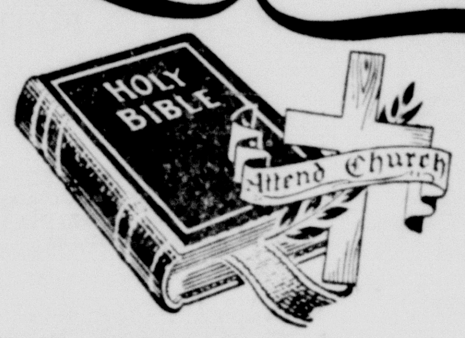
1776 'till NOW...

Independence Day, the Fourth, the Glorious Fourth of July, that Great Day in the history of our Great Country—the birthday of our freedom! It's time to celebrate! It's time to rededicate yourself to God and Country!

In 1776, July 4 was a day of jubilee, bell ringing. A people rejoiced with all its heart because its Declaration of Independence had been adopted. Long had they struggled under the oppression of tyranny, awaiting the fullness of time that would bring leaders to guide their way to freedom. They had been plucky, they had been patient, but now their hour had struck. At last their claims to "certain unalienable Rights... Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness"... were no longer intangible dreams, but a living challenge across the sea "to a candid world." Those patriots knew the struggle would be hard, that it would mean personal sacrifice for each and every one... it was a preposterous assignment; it was a fearful task. Did they hang back and haggle as to the prudence of such daring? Did they talk of doubt and fear and mistrust of their leaders? They weren't made of such stuff. They were proud of their commitment. Like their leaders, they were ready, "with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence," to pledge their Lives, their Fortunes, and their sacred Honor to support their Declaration of Independence. Their Spirit sanctioned every word. Their bells rang out in a grand "AMEN!"

This year July 4 likely will be gayer than ever. We will picnic, we will swim, we will go places. There'll be fireworks, parades, band-playing, speech-making. Again it will be a Great Day of celebration. But there'll be an undercurrent of solemnity; there'll be a reverent re-dedication to our country. We know that our nation stands today in grave peril; we are warned at every hand of the powerful tyranny which rides today unchecked, growing more threatening and more powerful hour by hour, day by day... Russia and her fifth column. We realize that the fate of our freedom is in our own hands. We must not be unconcerned. We must recognize the dangers. We must be ready to sacrifice. Like our forefathers, we must value our democratic freedom more than life itself... As we have done for nearly 200 years. Never have the people of America failed to rally in support of the principles set forth in our Declaration of Independence. We never will! Communism cannot take root in the Land of the Free. We have no desire for territory. We have no ambition for conquest and military glory. We want no loot. But we mean to have our freedom and independence, whatever the cost. In 1776, our forefathers made a bold Declaration against Despotism. Today, we stand ready to uphold that Declaration against any powers that be. The Spirit of '76 still lives. The right to fredoom of worship must Prevail.



YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Safety on Fourth Is a Need of All American People

Fourth of July is near. It's a good idea to plan certain precautions that can prevent the holiday from being a time of tragedy.

The old saying about observing "a safe and sane Fourth" may seem trite from years of repetition. But it is as sound as it ever was. Every year, failure to follow it results in death and injury, and property destruction by fire.

Fireworks are the most obvious hazard. At best, they are dangerous. They should never be used in congested areas, or in woods and fields where a spark may cause a runaway fire. Children should not be permitted to handle them except under strict adult supervision.

Each Fourth of July, millions of people go into the country for picnics. The national parks and other beauty spots are filled to overflowing. The careless use of matches, smoking materials and campfires is responsible for a disgraceful and totally unnecessary toll of the woods and the wild life in them. The simplest, most precautious will save these resources for the future.

Fire safety should be practiced on the Fourth—and on every other day in the year. Of late, there has been a small but encouraging decline in monthly fires. The waste is still criminally high, and the experts say that around 90% of it is attributable to human carelessness alone. It is up to us to decide whether fire shall continue to kill and maim and destroy. We can stop it if we will.

QUITE CLEAR

Having received from his tailor a bill and a note reading, "Please remit by return—51st notice.

Stony Broke replied: "Dear Sir,—I do not remember ordering a suit such as you mention. If I did order it you certainly never made it for me. If you did make it I never got it. Furthermore, if I got it I must have paid for it. And if I didn't I can't."

Leon Keyserling, Vice Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers to the President, who held out to the last with his claims that boom control was the big U. S. problem, now is leading the forces that are pressing Mr. Truman to do something drastic to head off a depression. Mr. Keyserling feels that things may get very bad if Government doesn't move in.

Dwight Eisenhower, wartime commander in Europe and now a university president, is not rebuffing suggestions that he will be available to the Republican Party in 1952 when it is to be in the market for a presidential nominee. He is starting to give the country his ideas on national issues and is showing opposition to a bigger Federal Government.

Herman Talmadge, Governor of Georgia: "The white race can't live and prosper in Georgia or the nation at the penalty of the Negro race."

DIFFERENT WORDS

"Just think of it," exclaimed the romantic young newlywed, "a few words mumbled over your head and you're married."

"Yes," agreed the old cynic, "and a few words mumbled in your sleep and you're divorced."

Some members of Congress who recently have been feeling the public pulse back home report that they find the political trend to be toward the left, not toward the right, and are shaping their 1950 plans accordingly.

More Pipe Lines for . . .

Good Gas Service

Over 40 miles of new transmission and distribution pipe lines have been installed by West Texas Gas Company this year. Many more miles of new lines will be installed before the end of 1949.

Many of these new pipe lines, all of which are designed to maintain good gas service, replaced smaller lines. Other new lines were extensions to serve new customers and others were designed to transport natural gas to cities and towns West Texas Gas Company serves.

The installation of pipe lines is but one of many functions of West Texas Gas Company.

This year we will invest over $2,225,000.00 in new facilities . . . all of which are designed to maintain good gas service, high in quality, low in price . . . the best bargain in your family budget.

Bob Neblett Ended Year's Work Head of the Rotary Club

Dr. Bob Neblett was speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club, to close out his year's work as President of the club.

Rotary Ann Thelma Fulton sang a group of solos, accompanied by her husband at the piano, H. R. Fulton, Jr.

Dr. Neblett thanked all of the officers, directors and members of the club for their hearty co-operation during the past year. He complimented the fine spirit of the local club, its fellowship and the fine programs of the past year.

Dr. Neblett talked on the theme: "If I were president again." He stressed three points which he felt had not been emphasized during the past year:

1. Membership and classification; making the members appreciate more their selection to represent their vocations in the city.

2. More emphasis upon attendance at the club meetings.

3. Support of the Paul Harris Memorial Foundation. Each Rotarian is assessed $10 for international exchange of students from the 50 nations which are now in Rotary. This exchange is a great thing for the world.

The incoming president, Jack Haley, was introduced and members urged by Dr. Neblett to co-operate with the new officers.

Visitors were: Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Jr., Hank Decker, both of Canyon; Bob Lindsey of Borger; Perry Marine of Sudan; J. A. Cornell of Plainview; H. D. Cline of West Liberty, Iowa; J. H. Patton of Hereford; J. E. Bowman, Forrest Barnes, Dory Detton, John E. Hill, R. P. Eastland, Norris Ewing, I. O. Tolzien, Arch Hunsley, Frank Storm, Jr., Roy Pool, all of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Vaughn met their granddaughters, Wanda and Linda Burgess of Washington, D. C., in Huntsville, Oklahoma, last Saturday. The girls will spend the summer with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Thul of Milwaukee, Wis., are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Thomas. Mrs Thul will be remembered as Helen Thomas.

Typhus Fever Is Spread By Rodents States Authorities

The people of Texas have been fortunate in escaping any serious outbreaks of typhus fever this year, the total number of reported cases so far being 133. This is a gratifying decrease in the incidence of this disease, but at the same time, it is well to warn that only continued stringent rodent-control measures will hold this disease in check.

This is the advice of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who says that "typhus is one of the most debilitating of all diseases, and the long drawn out illness results in such loss of time that this factor is usually more expensive to the vic? tim, than his doctor and hospital bills."

Inasmuch as typhus fever is transmitted to man by the rat flea, the control of typhus depends almost entirely upon ridding ourselves of rats. No garbage should be left exposed where they can get to it to feed. Granaries and feed houses should be rat-proofed so that rats are starved out. All rat harborages such as trash piles, piles of old lumber, accessible quarters in the walls and foundations of buildings and other suitable living quarters should be denied them. Houses and business buildings can be effectively rat-proofed at a comparatively low cost, and the expense is always much less than the damage that can be done by rats, and the sickness they can spread.

"When the rat is gone, typhus fever will go also," Dr. Cox said. "Keep building out, starving out, and killing all rats, and typhus fever will no longer menace the health of our people."

Patman-Word Vows Read In Clarendon

A formal ceremony held in Clarendon at 8:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church united in marriage Miss Ruth Patman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Patman, and Robertson Ingham Word, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Word.

A nuptial prelude played by Mrs. Millard Word, mother of the bridegroom, included several of her own compositions. The traditional wedding marches were used, and "Traumerei" by Schumann formed the musical background as the double-ring ceremony was read.

Entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was gowned in white nylon marquisette, fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. The long full skirt terminated in a court train which was trimmed with rows of nylon lace. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and baby breath.

The bride's attendants wore gowns of organdy over taffeta with matching bandeaus of carnations in their hair and carried nosegays of pastel daisies.

Mrs. Allen Patman of Borger was matron of honor, wearing blue. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Price of Astoria, Ill., and Miss Theresa Lile of Shamrock in pink; Mrs. Johnnie Cardinel of Canyon and Mrs. Robert Semrad of Lubbock in green;; Miss Melba Ruth Grady of Clarendon and Mrs. James Harder of Canyon in yellow.

Kent Webster of Amarillo was best man. Groomsmen were Charles Murphy, Bill Thornberry and Millard Word of Clarendon, Charles Owens of Canyon, Brien Webster of Amarillo and Allen Patman of Borger.

Mrs. Word was graduated from Clarendon High School, Clarendon College and West Texas State, where she was a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and Alpha Chi, honor society, and Pi Omega sorority.

Mr. Word was graduated from Clarendon High School and attended West Texas State, where he was a member of Alpha Sixma Xi fraternity. He is attending Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

If you were going to talk to young men and women who are going out into the world after completing school, what would you say? Here is what your columnist told graduating classes this season:

The question uppermost in your minds is, Is there opportunity? Yes, greater than ever before. Look at the tremendous employment in the United States, with salaries and wages high, and a standard of living that is the highest ever enjoyed by the rank and file of any country.

Next, perhaps, you are wondering, Where is opportunity? Is it away off in New York and Chicago? Yes—but there the competition is of the cut-throat variety. Opportunity is right here in your home town. Opportunity is everywhere that there are people who want services and products.

Charles Kessler was a pilot instructor during the war. As he flew a plane made of aluminum, he thought, "This is wonderful material, so light and yet so strong. Other things could be made of it." As he flew around, he noticed many sagging gates on farms and ranches, so he thought, "Why not a gate made of aluminum?"

So after the war, he and several other veterans started a factory. And where do you suppose they located it? In Mineral Wells, which we think of primarily as a health and pleasure resort. And, today their aluminum gates are in service on the King Ranch, Houston Fat Stock Show, Chicago stockyards, farms and ranches all over the nation and are being shipped to South America and the islands of the Pacific.

Kessler found his opportunity in a small city and his experience is typical of that of other men with imagination and energy.

I stopped in Fairfield at a cafe recently for breakfast and they brought out a platter with five hot biscuits and five pats of butter. And I ate 'em all.

POLIO

More cases of poliomyelitis have been reported in this country to date this year than in the same period of 1948, when there was a serious outbreak. So far, 1,757 cases have been reported, compared with 1,226 for the same period last year. California and Texas have reported the greatest number of cases but in both states the number of cases is declining.

CERTIFIED

The Veterans Administration has certified 1,300 paralyzed veterans as eligible for Federal grants up to $10,000 each for buying or remodeling specially designed houses. These veterans, paralyzed by spinal cord injuries depriving them of the use of their legs, will have houses designed with ramps in place of stair-steps.

HELPFUL GAL

A young lady stalled her car at a traffic light and couldn't get it started. She tried and tried, while behind her an impatient motorist honked his horn steadily. Finally she got out and walked back.

"I'm awfully sorry, but I can't start my car," she told the driver of the other car pleasantly."If you'll go and start it for me, I'll stay here and lean on your horn."

Right now I hate you, little television — you precocious, headache-making, money-sucking, hydra-headed infant. But I also love you and adore you, because you are going to be advertising's prize-winning baby.—J. H. E. Davis, Chicago advertising executive.

There is a tendency for many people to relieve themselves of caring for their aged parents and other relatives by having them declared mentally ill and committed to a state hospital.—Dr. John H. Lamneck, Ohio state welfare director.

One can always hope for an improved attitude by the Russians. But I am not too hopeful myself. I am always suspicious when the Bear comes bearing gifts.—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, in Paris on eve of Big Four Conference.

Our atomic program is suffering from equivocation, misplaced emphasis and waste.—Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R.-Iowa), member, Joint Atomic Energy Committee.

Yes, we have baby sitters for hire. I will personally guarantee that any of my football players will prove 100% dependable. However, I draw the line at only one point. I don't want any calls from babies 18 or 19 years old.—Lou Little, Columbia University football coach.

No one should be under any illusion the German menace has necessarily collapsed.—Dr. Alfonzo G. Grace, director of education, U. S. Military Government, Germany.

KFDA Will Air WT Football

All nine of WT's football games will be broadcast next fall over KFDA in Amarillo.

Dr. James P. Cornette announced a contract had been signed with the station to air the Buff games over both AM and FM.

Howard Robertson, KFDA manager, announced in Amarillo that Ray Whitworth would do the announcing.

WT's schedule shows five home games and four away. BC contests will be played with Texas Tech, Hardin-Simmons, Texas Western College (formerly Texas College of Mines), the University of New Mexico and Arizona State of Flagstaff.

The four games that will be played away from Canyon are Texas Tech, October 1, in Lubbock; University of Houston, October 15, in Houston; Arizona State, November 5, in Flagstaff, and the University of New Mexico, November 26, in Albuquerque.

GOVERNMENT INCOME

During the first five months of the present calendar year, the Governments income declined more than $3,000,000,000 compared with a year ago. From $18,000,000 in the first five months of 1948, net receipts of the Treasury dropped to $15,400,000,000,000 in the first five attributed to lowered income taxes. Withholding taxes, reduced later, were at the old rate during the first five months of 1948.

MARRIAGES

As was to be expected, marriages are declining in number for the third year in a row, following the record-breaking number of marriages from 1940 through 1947, with the peak of 2,291,000 in 1946. The estimated total for 1949 is 1,600,000.

AIR LINE SUBSIDIES

Air-Mail payments by the Government to air lines have jumped from $39,466,000 in 1946 to $61,004,000 in 1947 and $102,157,000 in 1948. In addition, the Government spent an estimated $180,000,000 in 1948 in indirect subsidies, for airports, navigational aids, aviation weather service, aeronautical charts, accident investigations and other activities connected with civil aviation.

PAY ROLLS

Payrolls of manufacturing firms were off 8.6 per cent by March from the peak levels of last autumn. Biggest declines are in rubber products, textiles and electrical machinery. Automobile and chemical pay rolls have not declined as much.

I don't know why they say the government is ourselves. I didn't vote for a lot of those guys that are running my business.

INSTALLMENT BUYING

Installment credit rose $207,000,000 in April, bringing the total to $8,623,000,000, or 22 per cent above April, 1948. Purchases of automobiles accounted for almost three-fourths of the April jump.

FACT FABLE

Once upon a time tragedy struck an average home. The house burned; the family dog aroused the people from slumber and the man succeeded in getting his wife and two children out of the burning building just in time. Suddenly Patsy, the dog, rushed back into the house. Said the man, "I'll bet she's going in after our fire insurance policy—I've heard of dogs doing that!"

But a minute later Patsy came out dragging the basket that held her four puppies.

John Lewis Free To Violate Laws Binding to Others

Many years ago Congress passed a series of anti-trust laws to prevent monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade in2this country. These laws apply to industry and finance alone. They pointedly exempt labor organizations. Yet, at this time, certain labor leaders and labor unions are wielding power to an extent which was never dreamed of by the "robber barons" of the last century.

One of the most startling examples of this is found in John L. Lewis' order to the United Mine Workers, which he controls lock, stock and barrel, to close down the coal mines of the United States for a period of a week. It was claimed that this was not a strike in the ordinary meaning of the term, that coal stocks above ground were at a high level, and that a brief shutdown would not seriously affect the industries of the nation. But these excuses are entirely beside the point. If Mr. Lewis can close down a vital industry at his whim for one week or one day or one minute he could by the same kind of dictatorial action, close it down indefinitely. He could cause a break down in such essential industries as the railroads, the electric utilities, and steel, which cannot function without coal. He could tie up ships carrying coal under the Marshall Plan to other lands, and thus undermine a foreign policy which has been approved by the President and Congress. Could we have a more glaring example of absolute monopolistic power than this?

It makes no sense to criticize Mr. Lewis for what he has done in the past or what he may do in the future. The real fault lies in laws which do not recognize that industry-wide bargaining creates as serious a monopoly as this country has ever faced. So long as this kind of bargaining is permitted, one union, dominated by one man, can tell the nation whether or not it shall have a commodity it cannot do without.

Congress is now considering a proposal to give the government the power to seize and operate strike-bound plants and industries. This is an expedient which totally overlooks the principle at stake. It would establish bureaucratic statism of the Hitler type in this country, and labor would be among the greatest losers. The only way out is to abolish labor monopolies precisely as we have abolished industrial and financial monopolies—to make all of them equal in the eyes of the law. The time for action is now.

MODERN MARY

At the supper table one night on the farm, the hired man was telling about a breeder who was developing a strain of sheep for speed. "He tells me," the hired man said, "that he's got lambs now that can run 40 miles an hour."

"But why does he want lambs that can run 40 miles an hour?" asked the bright young girl.

"To keep up with Mary," he replied.

Andrei Gromyko, Russia's representative on the United Nations Council, has held talks with American businessmen, but what they told him didn't lead Stalin to change his ideas about capitalism and capitalists. Premier Stalin is an old hand at making his own appraisals of the West and doing his own timing or moves designed to further Russian strategy.

British planners are afraid that, if they lower the value of their pound from $4.03 to $3.25 or less, the result will be to generate pressure in U. S. to raise tariffs or take other steps to protect U. S. markets.

The mania for speed in work and results explains many of the mistakes that cost money.

Snappy remarks are often senseless utterances.

"I don't know. I didn't read the note."

Averell Harriman eventually is to inherit the job of dispensing Marshall Plan billions, probably at a time when the use of those billions is to be tied more closely with economic reform in countries getting aid. Paul Hoffman, present Administrator, wants to retire as soon as he can do so gracefully.

Louis Johnson, Defense Secretary, is to let the Navy spend $45,000,000 to modernize some of its old carriers in spite of opposition by Army and Air Force heads. A modernized carrier will be able to handle P2V bombers, which can carry the atom bomb. Air Force wants no other service to break into the present Air Force monopoly on use of atomic weapons.

DEFICIT

The public is advised not to look for too much in the way of economy moves in Congress. The Budget Bureau estimates that budget items that can be cut added up to only $18,500,000,000 at the most. A 5 per cent cut in all of these items would save only about $925,000,000, which will not do much toward meeting the expected $5,000,000,000 deficit.

Commies Having Tough Time in China Victory

As Felix Morley points out in "Nation's Business," we have so far taken three major steps in our effort to contain communism. The first was the Truman Doctrine, with its military aid to Turkey and Greece. Next came the Marshall Plan, now officially known as the European Recovery Program, with its multi-billion dollar economic aid to 15 Western European countries. Finally, we have the recently signed Atlantic Pact, whose purpose is to form a defense line in Europe to bar the red tide.

Mr. Morley writes, "Obviously these three steps form a series of hastily concocted emergency measures, impossible to dignify as a carefully planned policy. If the purpose was to contain communism within a certain geographical area, then we should have established eastern as well as western barriers. . . . The final debacle in China . . . is painful evidence that communism is not being contained. And if Asia goes red, the cost of subsidizing a line of independent outposts in western Europe will soon become prohibitive, even for the fabulous wealth of the United States."

It would be folly to minimize the reverse the western powers have received in China. At the same time, it is easy to exaggerate the possible immediate effects of the great victories the Chinese communist armies have won. A red China is a very different thing, for example; than a red France or a red Italy would be. The Chinese communists, so far as anyone can see, have neither the intention nor the means to do much for communism as a world-wide force. They have before them a staggering task—to attempt to organize, and to pull from the nether depths of poverty and oppression, a vast, over-populated nation which is largely illiterate, and measured by current western standards, is almost wholly primitive in living and outlook.

The main energy of the masses of the Chinese people is pretty much absorbed in seeking a place to live, a daily ration of rice, some relief from murderous and unproductive toil. The past governments have been incredibly corrupt. Government officials, the warlords, the commercial interests—all have exploited the nation unmercifully. Going by reports from American businessmen and reporters in Shanghai since the communists took over, a real effort is being made to eliminate graft, and the old system under which no one could do business in China without bribes. At the same time, these reports emphasize that the new administrators are inexperienced, that it is difficult to find anyone with real responsibility, and that administrative problems are a long way from solution.

Communism is not being contained. But it is finding the path far from smooth.

BOY WANTED

This is an English story:

After watching the cross-eyed butcher cutting up the carcasses, the new boy assistant edged toward the door.

"I say," he asked the butcher, "do you strike where you're looking?"

"Certainly I do," replied the butcher.

"In that case you can hold the beef yourself," answered the boy. "I'm off!"

Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, Chief of Naval Operations, is trying to induce Staff Chiefs Omar Bradley of the Army and Hoyt Vandenberg of the Air Force to visit an aircraft carrier so that they can have a better idea of what it is they are voting against. The heads of the Army and Air Force haven't taken the trouble to become acquainted with the Navy's air arm.

President Truman is letting it be known privately that he feels the White House record of hunting Communists is as good as, or better than, the record of Republicans in Congress. The President doubts that Communism can be raised as an effective issue in the 1950 congressional campaign.

For Freedom

Not like the brazen Giant of Greek fame,
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
Is the imprisoned lighting, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air-bridge harbor that twin cities frame.
"Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she
With silent lips. "Give me your tired,
Your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

The Spirit of '76 was an aspiration. Today it is an accomplishment. How vital are the freedoms which we sought and won is best appreciated by those who have come from other lands to share them.

Repeal of Tax Transportation Is a Necessity

Sentiment in favor of repealing the 15 per cent travel tax, which applies to all train, plane and bus tickets sold in this country, is increasing rapidly. The tax was purely a war measure, and its purpose, at least in part, was to discourage travel at that time.

The Los Angeles Times recently said editorially, "Since the war strain on our transportation system is now over, the tax has no purpose now save to raise revenue.

"It produces about $250,000,000 a year; and while the Treasury can ill spare such a sum, it might gain as much or more indirectly through repeal. For increasing travel would increase all sorts of business and hence increase the tax revenue that business produces. It would lessen the needed subsidy of the air lines, too, and so stop part of this drain on the Treasury. . . . Transportation is not a 'luxury' in the United States and taxing it as a luxury is out of line."

The bulk of travel on the commercial land and air systems is for business, health and recreation, trips to and from schools, and so on. This is a big country, and people need to get around it. Restrictions and taxes which are unavoidable in time of war, when the interest of the public at large must be sacrificed in the interest of the military effort, have no place in peace time.

Worst of all, the tax is inequitable, Tickets can be bought in Canada for use within the United States and the tax is not levied. Canadian ticket sales have, as a consequence, boomed. It's high time we got rid of this sore spot.

OIL SUPPLY

Oil, among the scarcest of commodities only a few months ago, is now in heavy supply. Supply is growing faster than demand for the first time since the war's end, due to discovery of new fields. Texas, in 1948, led the nation with 31 per cent of all wells drilled. Oklahoma was second and Pennsylvania third, followed by Kansas, California, illinois, Louisiana, New York, Ohio and Indiana, in that order.

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE

Young Harry: "Dad, what's the difference between a gun and a machine gun?"

Dad: "There is a big difference. It is just as if I spoke, and then your mother spoke."

Crude Oil Is Different In Various Places

To the layman, it looks as if crude oil is crude oil, no matter where it may be found. But crude comes in as many different varieties as there are oil fields and no two varieties are exactly alike.

This difference is all-important to the men who refine petroleum. In order to get the crude that is best for certain products, they may have to go clear across the world. Some crudes are high in wax content. Others are a source of lubricating oils. Still others yield fine grades of kerosene, diesel fuel and heating oil. And, finally, some fields give general-purpose crudes which can be used to fill any need.

The oil industry, working in assay laboratories, can find out every last characteristic and quirk in a barrel of crude oil. The assaying is the refining process in miniature, and it answers three vital questions: What products can be made from this particular crude? Of what quality? How much of each? When the answers are in, the refiner makes his plans for future production. Allocation of crude to different refinery units may be arranged a year in advance, so that the required products can be made in needed quantities and the wants of consumers promptly met.

We naturally tend to think of the oil industry in terms of colorful boom towns, drilling rigs, and great refineries. But quiet laboratories play a major role in giving us the best possible oil products at the most reasonable price.

UNEMPLOYMENT

The Bureau of the Census has announced that unemployment hit a post-war peak of 3,289,000. Unemployment during 1933, the worst year of the depression, hit a peak of 12,600,000.

News In Canyon 25 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Randall County News of June 26, 1924)

A Chamber of Commerce picnic was staged at Wragge Park Tuesday evening, honoring Mayor C. N. Harrison for his work in securing the new Santa Fe depot. A dinner will be given in the future honoring Santa Fe officials.

Only one vote was cast against closing the street east of the old depot for the site of the new $65,000 depot. 120 citizens voted in favor of closing the street.

The News won a loving cup at the Texas Press convention for the best illustrated paper in Texas.

450 members of the Texas Press Association came to Canyon Friday to see the college. The association was meeting in Amarillo.

A contract is being let today for the construction of the new Catholic church.

W. G. Rose brought the first load of wheat to Canyon. The crop was making 26 bushels to the acre. The price was $1 per bushel.

Mayor C. N. Harrison announced that a whiteway was being planned from the business section to the new depot.

7,000 persons attended the celebration in Happy on the opening of the new cotton gin.

PERSONAL INCOMES

Personal incomes of individuals are declining for the first time in ten years, except for a brief dip right after the end of the war. In 1948, personal income reached an all-time high of $213,400,000,000—more than three times as much as was received by the American people in 1939. In the closing months of this year, however, personal income is expected to fall to a rate of $202,900,000,000.
